The Arc of San Diego Announces New Chief Operations Officer New Leadership to Continue Legacy of Success for Local Nonprofit

SAN DIEGO, CALIF – The Arc of San Diego is pleased to announce the appointment of Matthew Mouer as the agency’s new Chief Operations Officer.

“Matt brings extensive knowledge about disability services and a strong commitment to those we support. We look forward to his leadership as we continue to provide innovative services to meet the needs of individuals with disabilities,” said President & CEO Anthony J. DeSalis, Esq.

Mouer joined The Arc of San Diego almost 20 years ago and has played a key role in helping employ people with disabilities. He began his career as a Case Manager for Arc Community Employment Services (ACES) and has served as Director for the past 11 years. In that time, the department has enjoyed tremendous growth and success, including numerous accolades, accreditations and government contracts.

Prior to The Arc of San Diego, Mouer was employed with Kidspace National Hospital in Pennsylvania where he counseled adolescents with mental health issues as a Child Care Counselor in an acute care psychiatric Hospital. He attended The University of Maryland where he received his Bachelor of Science in Psychology.

“The Arc of San Diego provides vital, life-changing services to over 2,500 people in our community,” said Mouer. “I am committed to empowering people of all abilities, and I look forward to working with all of our dedicated staff as they support individuals in achieving the most independent, fulfilling lives possible.”
